James Halliday - Tasting notes

"Inky purple-crimson; an uninhibited, full-bodied cabernet with layered and powerful blackcurrant fruit, oak and tannins all speaking from the same page." 94 points - James Halliday

Winemakers comments

The 2012 Coonawarra Vintage is – in most winemakers opinion – one of the best Coonawarra has seen, along with good winter rains resulting in a full soil moisture profile and ample vine carbohydrate reserves.

No expense has been spared to make the best wine possible: these grapes were grown with only organic additions in the vineyard (for the past ten years), and minimal intervention, with only 4 organic sprays for the season.

Grown at a tiny 1 tonne per acre, and aged in fine grain French oak 300 litre Hogsheads for 19 months before bottling, with below organic levels of sulphur.

We are very proud of our wines - we hope you enjoy them.
